

Hopelessly In Love

P.F.P.

Paul F. Page
ASCAP

leisurely mp

Lov - ing you's _____ just
Lov - ing you _____

4

like I al - ways ___ i - ma - gined it would be: ___ just the two of us hold - ing ___ hands, fills me with won - der when I think a - bout ___ all the things we have shared, ___ my ___ love. ___

7

gaz - ing end - less - ly, breath - less - ly in - to each oth - er's eyes...
I am just a - mazed at the days and nights we've been so close,

10

hope - less - ly in _____ love.
hope - less - ly in _____ love.

1. _____
2. _____

Hopelessly In Love

2

15

Such a great gift — it is, sharing our lives — like this. Who can i - ma - gine such bliss.

19

When I look in — your eyes: bright new sun - ny skies. I'm hope - less - ly in love with you.

24

Do you think — it's strange that we're fall - ing in — love a - gain? — feel - ing

27

just like we did — when — we — were young? Or do you a - gree that this spe - cial

30

feel - ing we have now is a gift most rare? —

Hopelessly In Love

34

So it seems — like the stars have a - ligned — in hea-ven. Just like that! — We're find - ing a way — to — love — a - gain. Learn - ing brand new words from the years of 37

34

37

40

lov - ing we have shared. Such a pair are — we.

40

43

Such a great gift — it is, shar - ing our lives — like this. Who can i - ma - gine such bliss? When I look in — your eyes: bright new sun - ny skies. I'm hope - less - ly in love with

43

46

46

Hopelessly In Love

50 poco rall. a tempo

you. Hopeless - ly in love. It's true. Helpless - ly in love, breathless - ly in love, so___ hope - less - ly in love with you._____

54

57

2 February 2009

Sub