

I Can Only Say

P.F.P.

Paul F. Page
ASCAP

D6 C6 D6 C6 D6
When I think of you

6 C6 D6 C6 Bb6 Ab
and all the times we've shared, all the thou - sand dif - ferent

10 Gb Eb Db6 Eb6 Eb6
dreams we've dreamed, then my heart is glad

15 Db6 Eb6 Db6 B A
for all the times I said, "How are you to - day?"

19 G E (E) F#m7
and "Hel - lo." Was I just dream-ing? Was I just

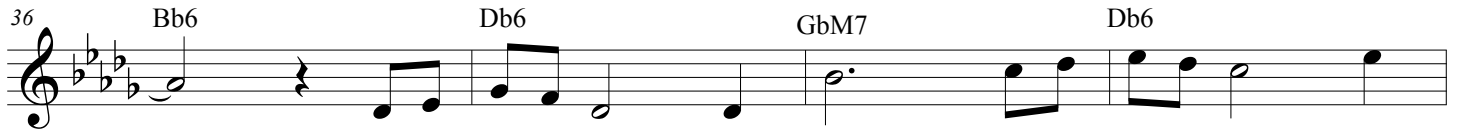

23 E6/G# G E
hop - ing? Or did you real - ly love me? And do you

26 A6 C6 C6 Bb6
love me now? Do you won - der why I am

31 C6 Bb6 Ab Gb E Db6
so in love and am so ver - y sure you could make me glad?

I Can Only Say

36 Bb6 Db6 GbM7 Db6

I can on-ly say that you are the on-ly one I've

40 GbM7 Db/Ab GbM7 Db6 E Db

known who made me love so much.

15 August 1970