

The Sunshine In

P.F.P.

Paul F. Page
ASCAP

Gb Ebm7/Ab Db7 (segue simile)*

1. A long time a - go, you smiled at me and
2. (At) first I was shy, but you were kind; you

5
1. said, "Hel - lo." How were you so sure that I would an - swer you?
2. made me sure. I am no more a - fraid now that I have your love.

9
(piano only) 1. And when you came up to me and
2. You touch me soft - ly, my love and 13

1. held my eyes with - in your gaze, how did you know I need-ed you? That I had
2. I then knew you real - ly cared. How did you know I need-ed you? That I had

17
1. searched for you so ver - y long?
2. searched for you so ver - y long? There must have been some-thing in-side. There must have been a - rea - son. There must have been some-thing we'd ne-ver felt be - fore. Some-thing that o-pened up the

21

25

29
1. doors to let the sun - shine in. (piano only)
2. (At)

33
2. sun - shine in.

26 November 1970

* One day I will write out this accompaniment.
This is NOT that day!