1. When we met so man - y years a - go,
2. Does - n't it a - maze you how we met?

3
1. nei - ther of us knew that love would grow. Lit - tle could we see
2. Stran-gers all our lives, and all a - lone. when I saw your face.

6
1. how our love would set us free... how our lives would soon a - gree.
2. my heart just raced. In your style I saw such grace.

9
2. All I thought of then was your sweet smile. I

12

2. want-ed you to know I cared. _____ You were much like me: you want-ed to be free. You

12

16

2. thought that you could be that way with _____ me, _____ my love. _____

16

19

3. So we start-ed slow-ly to un-wind...

19

22

3. shar-ing e-v'ry sto-ry we could find. And sud-den-ly we knew

22

25

3. how we could be one, not two; how we could be me and you.

When We Met

29

4. From the mo-ment when we knew for sure that our love would al - ways en - dure,

33

4. ne-ver did we fear, ne-ver did we doubt, my dear. All we'd want-ed was right here.

37

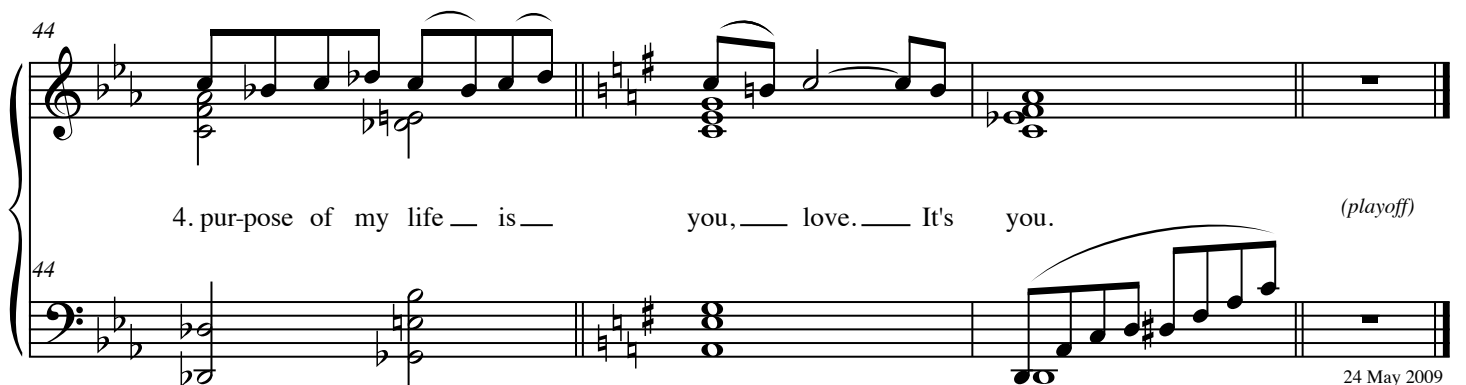

4. And from then 'til now such hap - pi - ness has filled up e - v'ry day, my

41

4. love. It will ne - ver end, my one and on - ly friend, the

44

4. pur-pose of my life is you, love. It's you. (playoff)
