

Whenever

Paul F. Page
ASCAP

P.F.P.

Eb+2

1. When e - ver there is dark - ness, I'll
 2. (When) you can't stand a - lone, I'll be right
 3. When e - ver you are trou - bled, when
 4. (So) you can count on me, love, to

3 Eb/G Bbsus4 Bb

be your shin - ing light. When - e - ver you are lone - ly, I'll be there. 1. You don't there with o - pen arms to hold you gent' - ly 'til you find your way. 2. If you things aren't go - ing right, when all your hopes ap - pear to be in vain, 3. I'll be al - ways be right here. There's no - where else that I would ra - ther be 4. than

6 Eb Eb7 Ab Eb/G

have to look a - round 'cuz I'll be stand - ing by your side. I will pro - need my arms to hold you when your strength is all but gone, be sure I'm there to give you cour - age, to hold your head up high, to start a - stand - ing close right - by you, than hav - ing you be - side me. I

2

Whenever

Eb

Eb

8

tect you; in my arms you can al - ways hide. 2. (When) stand - ing right be - side you all a - - - long.
 gain un - til your heart be - gins to fly. 4. (So) know our love will al - ways be the key.

11

Abm

Eb

Abm

Eb

Lis - ten to me, love, and I will tell you e - v'ry-thing that's deep in my heart.

15

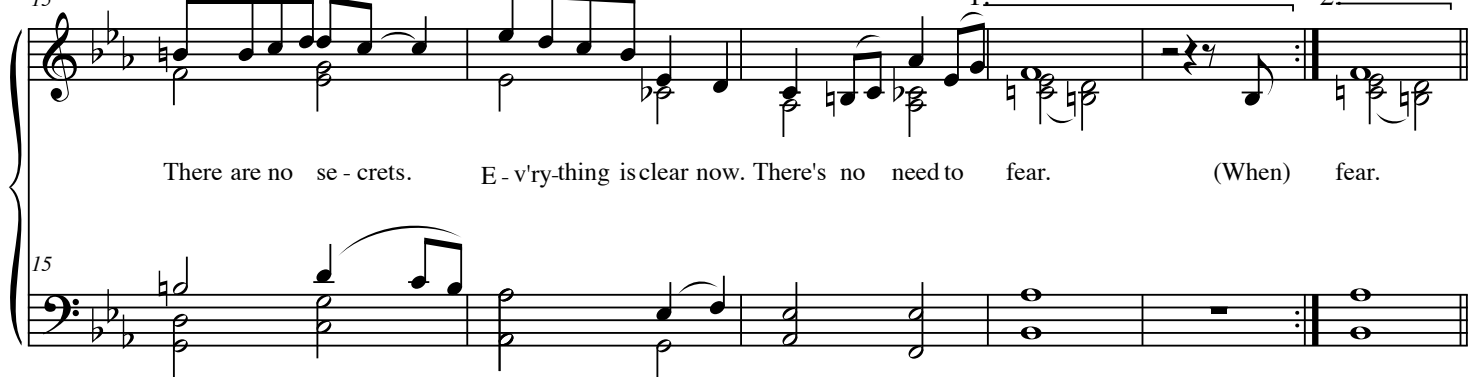

G

Cm

Ab

1.

2.

There are no se - crets. E - v'ry-thing is clear now. There's no need to fear. (When) fear.

21

Stand be-side me. Never wor-ry. I'll be al-ways near. I will never leave your side, so there's no need to fear.