

Each One's Joy

(Communion)

Paul F. Page
ASCAP

P.F.P.

Am E Am

1. In wis - dom we were pro - mised life. In wis - dom
 2. Be - fore the dawn of life had come; be - fore the
 3. With vi - sion deep You sensed our need. In vi - sion
 4. O Light of All and Peace to Us, come live in
 5. O Pro - mised One, we share Your life in all our
 6. With love You broke this bread with friends. With love You

7 E Dm Am

1. we were saved. _____ The gift of love un - folds
 2. sun had shone, _____ the eyes of God could see
 3. light was found. _____ The light of Christ has brought
 4. us to - day. _____ Pro - tect us from all dan -
 5. wak - ing hours. _____ Your gifts of bread and wine
 6. shared this wine. _____ Your gifts are shared once more

13 E Am

1. here in life _____ that You once gave. _____
 2. all. Un - end - ing love was sown. _____
 3. us a life _____ that's whole and sound. _____
 4. gers and light _____ and guide our way. _____
 5. bring Your strength and un - end - ing power. _____
 6. now, re - mem - bered in our time. _____

18 F G7 Csus4 C F G7 Csus4 C F E7

Come, live in us. _____ Teach us Your love. _____ Each one's joy is found in You, the Lord of Hope and Love. _____

28 Am Dm C/G F/G C

Feb., 1974

I wrote this piece for the Liturgical Conference at St. Mary's Cathedral held in early February 1974 in San Francisco. It was performed for Mass that afternoon. I played the piano; John Olivier accompanied on the organ; Mike Pillars played electric guitar; Diane Kaldenbach played flute; Ron Martin played the trumpet. It was the last of my compositions that my father heard. He died the following Friday.